Respected Sir,

I bring to your notice the Constitutional provision for the members who are or can be affiliated to MCA and those who cannot be treated as ordinary members of MCA.

As per Constitution of MCA Clause 3(e)(i)(b) :

"Existing ordinary members of the Association eligible for voting will remain as ordinary members of MCA subject to the following conditions :-

(a) -----

(b) They are not part of full or Associate membership of either BCCI or state Association.

Sr.No.	Name of Club	Affiliation of Parent Body with BCCI
1.	Mumbai University	Indian Universities
2.	Western Railway Sports Association	Railways
3.	Western Railway Accounts Sports Club	Railways
4.	Western Railway Traffic Sports Club	Railways
5.	Central Railway Sports Association	Railways
6.	Central Railway Institute	Railways
7.	Indian Navy Sports Control Board	Services
8.	Canteen Sport Club	Services
9.	Naval Dockyard Cricket Club	Services

It means that the aforesaid ordinary members of MCA are affiliated to their parent body, which is in turn affiliated with BCCI, and therefore, the aforesaid existing ordinary members must be relegated to the Associate memberships and they should not be part of the Voters list. I enclose herewith relevant xerox copies of Constitution of both MCA and BCCI.

Further, there are existing ordinary members who have ceased to have their independent existence. There are branches of the ordinary members who are registered as independent ordinary members. This must be viewed in light of the amended Constitution. For eg. :-

1. Indian Airlines must cease to be an existing member. It can be relegated to Associate membership. They may play cricket independently, but they are not voting members since Indian Airlines has been merged into Air India.
2. Same is the case of Insurance Companies. Orient Insurance cannot have two ordinary Members. One Orient Fire and General Insurance Co. and other Orient Insurance Sports Club. To my opinion and knowledge, Orient Fire has been merged or ceased to exist.

I request your Honour to look at the Constitution and issue and delete the aforesaid members as Voting Members.

With regards,

Yours sincerely

S.R. Halbe

Representative of Oriental Cricket Club
